

Misunderstood

by Tyneshia Wright

Misunderstood as I try to express true knowledge and emotions

Misunderstood as I swim in this mentally challenged ocean

Misunderstood as dreams and reality play roles of circumstance

Misunderstood as fate and destiny take their final dance

Misunderstood as the world turns to the beat of a hollow drum

Misunderstood as manipulated truths victimize the ignorant and the young

Misunderstood as awareness is blinded by lies and poor facts

Misunderstood as my heart beats for justice for all unrighteous acts

Misunderstood as time goes on, may my message be told true and clear Misunderstood as I go through this life with eyes filled with hope and tears...
